

Maidenhead
7 Nov. 1866

My dear Sir

If you wish it, I have still a vacancy for your name for "Davison's Poetical Rhapsody"; but for that you must send me £1 which will only pay for 2 out of the 3 parts of which it will consist.
Part 3 will probably cost only a few shillings.

If you want "England's Parnassus" when it comes out, you must favour me with another £1 to begin with. It will be in 4 or 5 parts at the cost of 8/ or 10/ each.

If you want my new series of Miscellaneous Old English Tracts, in prose or verse, you must advance £1 to be renewed as the reprints proceed. In all cases you will find the prices marked, so that you will know how fast & far your money goes.

I am extremely sorry that I have not a single copy left of "England's Helicon" - If one fall in my way I will remember you.

Yours very faithfully
J. Payne Collier

S. H. Harlowe Esq.
